

- Begin with re enactment of crime Marylin Mulero was charged with based on Justin Brooks' description, and then replay of "court proceedings", or lack thereof. Ms. Mulero's guilty plea, and then reading of her sentence
- Next intro about Justin Brooks, and position and founding of CIP - should take about 5 minutes
 - have multiple actors act out the scene where Brooks asked his law students if they were willing to participate in exonerating Marylin Mulero, no idea if she was innocent, but she definitely did not have a fair trial
- time lapse that goes into details about all the incredible successes that the CIP has gone on to have, and focus on someone wearing football pads and if can be acquired a seahawks/ falcons jersey to represent brian banks, the walk to exonerate 12 of his other clients to sacramento, build a sense of success and purpose
 - Then bring it back to Mulero, and after 20 years, and her proved innocence, she is still in prison
 - go into the details about the required legal system reform
 - three strikes law - we can use baseball analogy to bring home the concept
- Closing scene that somehow ties together all the aforementioned information - not really sure what that would look like yet
